Cricket Club Refurbishment – Public Works Loan

Following the progress of the Cricket Club refurbishment project and the planning application now agreed, members are asked to confirm whether they remain supportive of progressing the project and beginning the process of applying for a Public Works Loan to support the refurbishment.

If supported, the Clerk will begin gathering the necessary information and incorporate the potential borrowing and associated repayments into the Council's forward budgeting and financial planning for the next 3 year forward budgets.

Speeding - Smallfield Road - Clerk has requested the speed survey on Smallfield Road due to the cluster of accidents. At agenda writing we havent heard anything further - to note the last one we had took a long time to organise with SCC

Request for meeting

Planning Agent , Pitch Perfect have made a request to meet with Parish Council representatives regarding a potential future planning application on land in Horne Parish before a formal planning application is made.

Do members wish to arrange a meet - details to be reported back in November meeting if meeting is agreed.
